MEMORANDUM
MILITARY DEPARTMENT.

TO THE DEWAN OF MYSORE
FOR ORDERS.

DATED 6 July 1900.

Subject

Revision of the allotment for Band Establishment Mysore Infantry.

Submitted for Orders.

The Chief Commandant says his object is to facilitate the distrbution of allowances according to merit.

The Chief Commandant will necessarily be guided in this matter by the Band master who will therefore, unless the new system be guarded by fixed Rules, control a large proportion of Bandsmen's pay.

As it is doubtful whether it would be wise to give a man on Rs 80/- a month so much power, I would suggest that sanction be accorded to the proposal, provided that the Bandsmen are divided under the new system into 3 classes with a fixed allowance for each class and that the rules for gaining losing and being readmitted to these class allowances be the same as those laid down for Good conduct Pay.

The Bandmaster may be then given the power of reducing to a lower class subject to confirmation by the Chief Commandant.

2. In addition to the rates of pay set forth above, Government are pleased to sanction good conduct pay for Non-Commissioned Officers and Sowars on the following terms :—

To Non-Commissioned Officers above the grade of Lance Daffedars—

After 2 years' good service in the grade	...	Re. 1 per mensem.
Do 4 do	...	Rs. 2 do
Do 6 do	...	Rs. 3 do
Do 10 do	...	Rs. 4 do

To Lance Daffedars and Sowars—

After 3 years' good service. ...	...	Re. 1 per mensem.
Do 6 do ...	...	Rs. 2 do
Do 10 do ...	...	Rs. 3 do

The following conditions and rules regulate the receipt, forfeiture and restoration of good conduct pay—

Receipt of Good Conduct Pay—

(a) A necessary condition of the receipt of any rate of good conduct pay is, that the Sowar has not, within two years preceding the completion of his qualifying service, been convicted of any offence by a Court Martial, or been twice entered in the Regimental Defaulters' Book as having been awarded any of the following punishments :—

(i) Any award of imprisonment;
(ii) Confinement to Lines of 15 days or more.

Service under 16 years of age and service until the full donation on account of Chanda has been paid up does not count towards good conduct pay.

(b) A Sowar shall not be advanced to a higher rate of good conduct pay unless he shall have been in the uninterrupted receipt of the next lower rate for two years immediately preceding his claim. But a re-enlisted Sowar, allowed to count his previous service, will at once be allowed the rate of good conduct pay to which his total service may entitle him.

Forfeiture of Good Conduct Pay—

(a) On conviction of any disgraceful conduct, a Court Martial may, in addition to any other punishment which it is empowered to award, sentence the offender to forfeit all advantages as to good conduct pay which might otherwise have accrued from the length or nature of his former service, or to forfeit all such advantages absolutely, whether past or future.

(b) Good conduct pay shall not necessarily be forfeited on the infliction of a minor punishment, but forfeiture thereof may be awarded as substantive punishment, either by order of the Commanding Officer or by sentence of Court Martial as the case may be.

(c) Forfeiture of good conduct pay may be awarded in addition to any other minor punishment.

(d) Whenever a person in receipt of good conduct pay is convicted by a Court Martial, his good conduct pay shall cease.

(e) Forfeiture of good conduct pay when awarded by a Commanding Officer is restricted to one rate of such pay only for each offence recorded in the Regimental Defaulters' Book.

Restoration of Good Conduct Pay to a Non-Commissioned Officer.—A Non-Commissioned Officer reduced to the ranks, but not sentenced to forfeiture of advantage accruing from former service, will receive the rates of good conduct pay of such service in addition to his pay as Sowar, subject only to reduction of one rupee a month for one year from the date of the offence for which he may have been reduced, or of the execution or the termination of the sentence passed upon him for such offence.

Restoration of Good Conduct pay to other ranks—

(a) A Sowar who has forfeited his good conduct pay either by award of a Court Martial or as a consequence of conviction by a Court Martial or by order of his Commanding Officer, must serve for one year without an entry in the Regimental Defaulters' Book, before he will be eligible for restoration to each rate he may have forfeited.

(b) A Sowar who, within twelve months of any previous forfeiture, is again convicted of an offence requiring entry in the Regimental Defaulters' Book, must serve for two years from date of original forfeiture, without another entry, before he can claim restoration of the reward.

(c) The period of one or two years' approved good conduct shall count, in the case of a Commanding Officer's award, from date of such award, if it shall not have been accompanied by imprisonment, and otherwise from date of release; and in the case of forfeiture having been awarded by Court Martial, or been consequent on a conviction, from date of sentence when corporal punishment or imprisonment is remitted, and otherwise from date of execution or the termination of the sentence.
